Junior Playing Up

CONSENT FORM

BACKGROUND

The VCFA Board have set requirements in the VCFA Match Rules (Addendum E) for junior players (under 18 years of age) who want to participate in age groups two (2) years above their age eligibility, or play in a senior competition.

As part of these requirements, this consent form must be completed by parents/guardians and clubs when registering any junior player (under 18 years of age):

- to play up two (2) years, to acknowledge the potential risks associated with playing a junior player in a higher age group, or
- to play in a senior competition, to acknowledge the potential risks associated with playing a junior aged player in a senior age group.

CONSENT

By signing this consent form -

We the parent/guardian of the player and the club representative have read and understand the VCFA guidelines on Juniors playing above their eligible age group, and in senior competitions, and have considered all factors and acknowledge the potential risks to the player when providing this consent.

I hereby give permission for the player (as listed above) to participate in the competition and proposed age group, as requested above.
